FACULTY/STAFF HIGHLIGHTS

Theatre Professor Cheri Fortin and Music Professor Scott "Reno" Brian, along with a couple of the actors from this year's production of "Little Shop of Horrors" will be guests this morning on Capital Public Radio's Insight with Jeffrey Callison. Insight is a live magazine-interview program that airs from 10 to 11a.m. Mondays through Fridays in Northern California and Western Nevada. Reno said "We are very excited to have this opportunity. We look forward to being able to talk about the show as well as the role of CRC and community colleges in general in our society." Please see information under "Division Highlights" for dates and times of this cult classic production and plan to attend!

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

In preparation for Women's History Month, there will be student auditions for a Staged Reading of The Vagina Monologues. Tuesday, February 23 from 4- 5.

Auditions will be in the Black Box Theatre and will consist of cold readings from the script.

Performance on March 11 at 7:00!

PICTURE(S) OF THE WEEK...

CONGRESSWOMAN DORIS MATSUI HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE IN THE RECITAL HALL LAST THURSDAY ANNOUNCING THE DETAILS OF THE $5 MILLION GRANT LOS RIOS RECEIVED TO FUND HEALTHCARE JOBS TRAINING. FOR CRC, THAT MEANS FUNDING FOR OUR DIAGNOSTIC MEDICAL SONOGRAPHY PROGRAM, WHICH IS COMING SOON!

STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

Former CRC graduate Bauj Chang, seen here at last spring's Asian Pacific Islander Week, will be leaving the country in May to teach English in Nonthaburi, a city approximately an hour from Bangkok, Thailand. Chang will teach for a year at a private high school and says she is both nervous and excited because she's never been out of the country before. Chang, a communications major, graduated from CRC in the spring of 2008 and is preparing to graduate from Sacramento State in May. At CRC she was in the EOPS program and was a student ambassador. She said she has the Transfer and Career Center at CRC to thank for the smooth transition to Sac State. "I feel like I'm where I should be," Chang said.
