STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

CRC's SIFE Club provided computer training to disadvantaged women associated with the Elk Grove Food Bank Services SWFW program. Students provided computer training over the last two weeks covering computer topics including log in skills, launching Microsoft Explorer, Web site address, creating an email account, attaching a document to an email, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Templates, resume' creation, and cover letter creation. Many students continue to provide one-on-one training by responding to email requests and phone calls from these women who have additional questions.

Congratulations to Architecture Design Technology student Lynn Hurtado for her selection as one of Cosumnes River College's Hispanic/Latino scholars. Lynn was recognized at the Honors Program held on October 15th during National Hispanic Heritage month.

Congratulations also go out to Horticulture students Lisa Gomes, James Walker and Tara Coventon for their recent recognition by the Rancho Murieta River Valley Garden Club and student scholarship awards.

FACULTY/STAFF HIGHLIGHTS

On Saturday, Outreach Specialist Peggy Ursin participated in the Sacramento City Unified School District's first "Showcase of Schools and Open Enrollment Fair" at the Serna Center. The event provided families an opportunity to visit with school-site teams and learn of specialized programs within the SCUSD. Elementary, K-8, middle and high schools, charter schools, colleges and other training opportunities were represented, all sharing information about resources, services and support available to students and families. The new District Superintendent, Jonathan Raymond, hosted the event as a shared effort to strengthen the bonds between schools and the community.

Humanities Dean Ginny McReynolds has written another lively and entertaining article for Sacramento News & Review. This time, she writes about the gadgets in our lives. You can read it at: <http://www.newsreview.com/sacramento/content?oid=1308377>

Vice President of Student Services & Enrollment Management Celia Esposito-Noy co-presented two sessions this past weekend for community college student advisors (CCSSAA) at the Student Senate for California Community Colleges conference and general assembly held in San Francisco. Celia was asked to present, along with another Chief Student Services Officer, on behalf of the CSSO Executive Board for which she is President. The first workshop was entitled Leadership in Hard Times and the second was Best Practices: Students with mental health issues and the discipline process.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The college is hosting a public forum to discuss the updated ADA Transition Plan. CRC has developed an ADA Transition Plan to ensure accessibility for individuals with disabilities to the college's programs and services. The Draft Plan assesses the barriers, estimates the cost of their mitigation, establishes priorities for their elimination and provides an estimated timeline for their removal. The public forum takes place Thursday, November 19, 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM in the Technology Building, Room 114.
