

Program SLOs

Automotive Mechanics Technology

A.A. – Automotive Mechanics Technology

Certificates of Achievement – Automotive Mechanics Technology, Automotive Engine Performance

Certificates of Proficiency – Automatic Transmissions/Transaxles, Automotive Brakes, Automotive Electrical Systems, Automotive Engine Repair, Automotive Heating & Air Conditioning, Automotive Suspension & Steering, Automotive Emission Control, Small Engine Repair

Program Student Learning Outcomes from the 2005 PrOF (Program Review)

P-SLO 1 Compete in the job market in the field of Automotive-oriented service, maintenance and repair.

P-SLO 2 Perform common service and repair tasks identified by the National Automotive Technical Education Foundation (NATEF.)

P-SLO 3 Locate industry-standard diagnostic information to localize complex automotive problems.

P-SLO 4 Successfully perform the entry-level skills and tasks required for their chosen career.

P-SLO 5 Develop professional attitudes, values, and goals.