

Program SLOs

English as a Second Language

No Degrees or Certificates offered.

ESL Writing Program Student Learning Outcomes From the 2005 PrOF (Program Review)

P-SLO 1 - Demonstrate ability to function in writing situations for a variety of academic and workplace purposes where English is the primary language.

P-SLO 2 - Support opinions with facts and cogent reasoning.

P-SLO 3 - Apply error correction strategies to address personal, repetitive weaknesses in writing.

P-SLO 4 - Participate in the peer review process to strengthen the intent of written communication.

P-SLO 5 - Make progress toward becoming self-reliant and independent learners.

P-SLO 6 - Become more prepared to contribute to a diverse democratic society with a pluralistic perspective of the world.

ESL Reading Program Student Learning Outcomes

P-SLO 1 - Demonstrate ability to function in most reading situations where English is the primary language.

P-SLO 2 – Vary reading strategies based on purpose.

P-SLO 3 - Employ vocabulary building strategies.

P-SLO 4 - Analyze readings to include the recognition of rhetorical modes, thesis, purpose, audience, bias, and organization.

P-SLO 5 - Make progress toward becoming self-reliant and independent learners.

P-SLO 6 - Become more prepared to contribute to a diverse democratic society with a pluralistic perspective of the world.

ESL Listening Program Student Learning Outcomes

P-SLO 1 - Demonstrate ability to function in most listening and speaking situations where English is the primary language.

P-SLO 2 - Produce lengthy, unrehearsed examples of intelligible connected speech.

P-SLO 3 - Identify central meaning in conceptually and linguistically challenging spoken discourse

P-SLO 4 - Use a variety of interactive speaking/listening and presentation strategies effectively.

P-SLO 5 - Enhance ability to contribute to a diverse democratic society with a pluralistic perspective of the world.

P-SLO 6 - Demonstrate ability to independently apply skills learned to own oral communication.

ESL Pronunciation Program Student Learning Outcomes

P-SLO 1 - Produce lengthy, unrehearsed examples of intelligible connected speech

P-SLO 2 - Use a variety of interactive speaking/listening and presentation strategies effectively.

P-SLO 3 - Demonstrate ability to independently apply skills learned to own oral communication.