

Program SLOs

Health Information Technology

A.S. Degree – Health Information Technology

Certificate of Achievement – Health Information Coding Specialist

Program Student Learning Outcomes From the 2005 PrOF (Program Review)

P-SLO 1 Compete in the job market in the field of health information technology.

P-SLO 2 Meet the Foundation Knowledge and Skills and Competencies for the HIM Associate Degree Entry Level Health Information Technologist as reflected in the Domains, Sub domains, and Tasks as outlined by the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA.)

P-SLO 3 Be eligible to take the national registration examination for Registered Health Information Technologist (RHIT) or Certified Coding Associate (CCA.)

P-SLO 4 Successfully perform skills and tasks required for their chosen profession and career.

P-SLO 5 Develop professional attitudes, values, and goals as recognized by the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) and the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM.)

A.S. – Health Information Technology Student Learning Outcomes*

SLO 1 Recognize and apply the knowledge and skills necessary to pass the national Certified Coding Associate (CCA) examination.

SLO 2 Demonstrate certifiable skills and knowledge to be employable in the health information field.

Certificate – Health Information Coding Specialist Student Learning Outcomes*

SLO 1 Recognize and apply the knowledge and skills necessary to pass the national Certified Coding Associate (CCA) examination or Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) examination.

SLO 2 Demonstrate certifiable skills and knowledge to be employable in the health information field.

*Developed through the Curriculum Committee approval process.