

Program SLOs

Human Services

A.A. Degree - Human Services, General

Certificate of Achievement – Human Services, General

Program Student Learning Outcomes From the 2005 PrOF (Program Review)

P-SLO 1 Students will develop a comprehensive overview of the field of human and social services in both the public and private sector.

- Work with diversity of service population and demonstrate culture competence.
- Evaluate agency function and delineate agency services.

P-SLO 2 Students will be able to assess the needs of clients and provide referrals.

- Use tools of the field for intake and assessment.
- Evaluate client needs and choose appropriate referral agencies.

P-SLO 3 Students will be able to use introspection to understand self to helping clients.

P-SLO 4 Students will be able to recognize appropriate boundaries and act in accordance with the legal and ethical standards of the field.

P-SLO 5 Students will be able to use counseling skills to assist and advocate for clients including:

- Provide effective individual counseling.
- Use case management tools.
- Conduct effective group counseling sessions.