A Rapidly Growing College

• Enrollment has increased 70% since Fall 1996
• Fall enrollment has increased 25% over the past three years
• Approximately 4,500 students attend more than one LRCCD College
A Culturally-rich College

- No majority population
- Over 70% of our students are ‘minorities’
- More than 90 first languages spoken
Diverse Income Levels

- Approximately 50% of CRC’s student population is below poverty or low-income.

- Poverty level definition:
  - $10,210 for one-person family
  - $3,500 for each additional person
Many ‘Pioneers’

- On average 14 students in each class are “first-generation” (neither parent has attended college)
- CRC has the largest percentage of “first-generation” students in the District

"First Generation" Students at CRC

- Fall 2005: 39.0%
- Fall 2006: 61.0%
- Fall 2007: 61.1%
- Fall 2008: 59.9%
- Fall 2009: 59.4%
Young and Old

- Over 60% of CRC students are under the age of 25, an increase of 5.5%

- The youngest student at the College is 14; the oldest is 87
Genders Not Balanced

- CRC’s gender distribution has remained relatively constant over time

- However, close to 50% of incoming students between 18 and 30 are male
Increased Demand for Distance Education

- Most courses are "traditional" Lab/Lecture courses
- Tremendous growth in online courses in the past few years

CRC Course Offerings by Instructional Mode

- Traditional Courses: 89.3%
- Distance Education: 9.3%
- Other: 1.6%
Continued Quality

• Outcomes
