Program Assessment Report Summary

CRC Learning Outcomes Dialog

Program Assessment Reports Received in 2012-13
- 43 Assessment Plans
- 31 Assessment Reports
- 41 College Programs

Summary of Changes Respondents Planned for Their Programs

- 19 programs found no need to modify their programs
- 13 programs planned to revise or introduce new teaching methods
- 10 programs identified other changes that needed to be made
- 7 programs planned to conduct further assessment
- 6 programs need to develop new assessment tools
- 6 programs planned to revise their course syllabi
- 6 programs planned new approaches to assessing student work
- 6 programs intend to change their curriculum
- 4 programs intend to seek Professional Development
- 2 programs identified equipment and/or supplies needs

EXAMPLE CHANGES MENTIONED IN P-SLO/P-SAO ASSESSMENT REPORTS
- Modify program in response to changes in external accreditation organization
- Purchase additional equipment to increase hands-on-learning opportunities
- Implement pre and post testing
- Enroll in digital learning courses
- Create new rubrics for assignments related to P-SLO
- Add pre-requisites
- Change the amount of time allocated to certain topics
- Review pre-requisite course material
- Upgrade software to better support student learning
- Develop instructional materials that clarify program expectations
- Meet with counselors to strengthen their understanding of program options
- Create a new procedures document
- Implement new strategies to make the scientific method more relevant to students
- Seek further training in specific content area
- Change the textbook used in the program
- Revise syllabus and assignments to emphasize concepts related to the P-SLO
- Revise the assessment instrument
- Implement ways to provide more immediate feedback to students on their learning
- Implement new teaching method and assess effectiveness in next semester
- Modify formative and summative assessment items related to the P-SLO
- Assess and select new software that better meets program needs

Thanks for your Efforts — Keep up the Good Work!

Program Assessment Reporting System Link
http://researchapps.crc.losrios.edu/slo_assessment_portal/

Questions? Need Help? Contact Scott Crosier (crosies@crc.losrios.edu)